

Warning Orders

CosCat - The Last Days of the 14th Century

Photo shoot at Worcester Cathedral

Open to 14th C re-enactors

Date. 02/11/2024. Start Time. 11.00hrs Duration. [Approx] 2 hours.

Now in its second year, the CosCat Project is a joint venture between Worcester Re-enactors and Worcester Cathedral Education Department.

The aim is to produce a view of 'the people' of Worcester for the 1000 years between St Wulstan and the 20th Century. This time we are covering the late 14th Century.

Meeting point.

The North Door of Worcester Cathedral.

Changing facilities

To Be Confirmed.

Car Parking.

To be confirmed.

Time period being depicted. The late 14th Century.

You will be responsible for your own level of authenticity.

Subjects.

Civilians of the late 14th Century

Backdrops.

Information to follow.

Producer. Wagg Ellis-Jones.

My duties are best described as ..'and all other responsibilities'.

Artistic Director. Richard Delingpole.

All photographers wishing to take part will need to register with Richard. He'll explain everything that is involved and what is expected.

Casting Director. Mike Haynes.

All persons wishing to take part as 'subjects' and 'in kit' need to register with Mike. He'll explain what is involved and what is expected.

Locations Manager. Jo Wilson.

When on site, Jo is the final word on where and what we can do.

Contact details

Wagg Ellis Jones waggej@hotmail.com

Richard Delingpole Richard.delingpole@btinternet.com

Mike Haynes mikeylovey@btinternet.com

Jo Wilson